PURPOSE

Ballina River Street Children’s Centre aims to provide an inclusive environment for all children, families teachers and educators and acknowledging the uniqueness of each individual regardless of their additional needs and abilities, race, gender, sexuality religion, culture, physical and mental abilities and socio-economic background. This policy ensures all children; families and staff are welcome, treated equitably and with respect.

SCOPE

This policy applies to children, families, teachers, educators, staff, management and visitors of the Service(BRSCC).

IMPLEMENTATION

Our Anti-Bias and Inclusion policy underpins the philosophy of the Service(BRSCC). The role of teachers/educators is to encourage children to share and learn about the individuality of each child and their family and their role in the Service(BRSCC). This policy aims to assist children to form positive social relationships and to learn to accept the diversity of members of the Service community.

‘Educators who are culturally competent respect multiple cultural ways of knowing, seeing and living, celebrate the benefits of diversity and have an ability to understand and honour differences. This is evident in everyday practice when Educators demonstrate an ongoing commitment to developing their own cultural competence in a two way process with families and communities.’ (EYLF Page 16)

In Relation to Cultural or National Origin and Racial Identity:

- Children and Teachers/Educators will have access to information and training about other cultures/racial identity, especially those relevant in the Service.
- Teachers/Educators will work with one another, families and children to continue to extend both their individual and communities cultural competence.
- Teachers/Educators will expose children to a wide variety of concrete materials from daily life of families/cultures.
- Where possible, the Service(BRSCC) will employ Teachers/Educators that reflect various cultural, national origin and racial identities.
- Teachers/Educators will affirm and foster children’s knowledge and pride in cultural identity.
- Teachers/Educators will foster children’s curiosity, enjoyment and empathetic awareness of cultural differences and similarities.
- Teachers/Educators will teach children to overcome any inappropriate responses triggered by cultural differences.
- Teachers/Educators will encourage children to ask about their own and other’s physical characteristics.
- Teachers/Educators will enable children to feel pride, but not superiority, about their racial identity. Teachers/Educators will help children to become aware of our shared physical characteristics – what makes us all human.
- Teachers/Educators will encourage parent input into the program, sharing culture, racial identity i.e. First language and to participate on a level that they feel comfortable.
- Teachers/Educators will collect information from each family on enrollment and incorporate it in the program to meet individual family needs re: ethnicity and home language.
- Teachers/Educators where possible will use both the Teachers/Educators and children’s first language verbally and visually within the Service(BRSCC) environment.
- Teachers/Educators will respect all cultures by presenting photographs, pictures, play equipment, books, posters, music, dramatic play and dolls that will encourage open discussion and exploration.
- Where possible creative materials will include 2D and 3D materials of different skin tones.
- Teachers/Educators will present books that reflect different languages and children’s first language.
- Teachers/Educators will know and understand the needs, strengths and attitudes of each culture who attend the Service(BRSCC).

In Relation to Gender Equity

- Teachers/Educators will ensure that all children are given equal opportunities to engage in all experiences and interactions regardless of their gender.
- Teachers/Educators will monitor and reflect on their own interactions for bias and reflect regularly on the language used with children.
- Teachers/Educators will aim to use gender inclusive language.
- Teachers/Educators will offer opportunities for both male and female family members to be equally involved within the program.
